VARSAITY.

ST. JOE 20 — vs. — ST. VIATORS 18

Feb. 8. St. Viators our greatest rivals after being in the lead nearly the entire game lost out in the last few minutes of play. With an eight point lead at the end of the first half it looked as though our opponents would carry home the bacon in pretty easy fashion. But our quintet came strong in the second period making six field goals to the visitors two. The low score can be attributed to very close guarding coupled with mediocre shooting by both sides.

ST. JOE 23 — vs. — LOWELL 12.

Feb. 14. In order that the Varsity might be in pink of condition for Sunday's game, the All Stars were staged against Lowell. Much credit is due to the All Stars for at the end of the first half after a scrappy game, they managed to lead by a small margin. But this lead was not very comfortable and in order to make the game a little more safe, two Varsity men were rushed on the scene in the second half. This change in the line-up had its immediate effects and the game was never in danger after this. Sindelar was the greatest point getter.

ST. JOE 60 — vs — ST. MICHAELS 14

Feb. 16. In another onesided contest St. Joe piled up the biggest score of the season. The visitors certainly had very little fight in them and the interest in the game suffered as the baskets rolled in. Deery and McArdle so easily tricked their guards that the signals worked with little interference. No doubt this is the last of the Chicago teams to visit us and looking over the seasons record with this city, St. Joe is a strong contender for the Catholic College Championship of Chicago.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

III. LATINS 43 VS IV. LATINS 16.

Feb. 12. The III Latins walked away with the IV Latins and had no trouble in defeating them by a big margin. All the players on the former team helped to raise the score as every one of the quintet made several baskets. They also showed class in passing the ball over the floor and the IV Latins were unable to hinder them. In the last few minutes McGinty of the IV Latins began to roll in a few counters which saved his team from having one of the lowest scores of the season.

IV. LATINS 29 — vs — II. COM. 6.

After a period of hard luck in which they have lost most of their games by one or two points the IV Latins hit their stride and gained their first victory by burying the II Commercial under a 29 to 6 score. The game was a little rough and time had to be called several times nevertheless the IV Latins treated us to some good basket ball. The point gaining honors were divided between Kihm and McGinty, but they were ably assisted by the other members of the team.

SENIORS 26 — vs — II. LATINS 14.

Feb. 15. The Seniors made a long stride towards capturing the bunting when they defeated their old rivals the II Latins by the score of 26 to 14. The two teams were tie for the first place and this game meant much to both teams, as the pennant almost depended upon it. The II Latins were a little nervous and were unable to break up the fast team work of the Seniors, nevertheless they put up a better game than the score indicates. The Seniors were in their old time form and never let up on their opponents. Lill was there when it came to shooting in this game and scored 18 of the Seniors points. This leaves the III Latins and Seniors tie for first place, with II Latins not far behind, and some scrappy games can be expected before the Seniors can be rewarded.

Academic League.

TIGERS 16—vs—MAROONS 13.

Feb. 15.—Close guarding featured the game between the Tigers and Maroons in which the former were victorious. Score 16 to 13. It was one of the best games of the Academic League. The Maroons overcame a six point lead in the second half by some sensational shooting and good floor work.

SHAMROCKS 8—vs—EAGLES 5.

Feb. 2.—The Shamrocks crowded the Eagles out of second place by winning today's game 8 to 5. This is perhaps the smallest score any two teams have had this year. It was close and fast, and it was only in the last few minutes that the Shamrocks gained their three point lead which they succeeded in holding to the end.

EAGLES 12—vs—MAROONS 19.

Feb. 4.—The Academics treated us to some good basket ball when the Maroons and Eagles played a close and fast game. Score 12 to 19. Especially in the first half was the game exciting, for the two teams seemed evenly matched and there was only one point difference in the score at the end of this period. In the last half the Maroons held their opponents scoreless and succeeded in making eight points which won the game for them.

Junior League.

BLUE BELLS 7—vs—CARDINALS 11.

Feb. 5.—In the fastest and most scientific game played among the Juniors, the Cardinals scored eleven points while the Blue Bells were counting but seven. Fitzpatrick and his fast throwing quintet were finally forced to divide honors for the first time this season. During the first period of the game luck was against the Blue Bells and sure seemed destined for defeat, Fitzpatrick's team was somewhat at a disadvantage, three of them being disabled on account of sprained fingers, to play a star game as they have been doing during the entire season. The Blue Bells were unable to locate the basket still they had few free throws owing to the fact that the Cardinal guards did excellent work.

LAURELS 7—vs—CARDINALS 15.

Feb. 15.—The game which determined first place among the Juniors for the present time also claimed the attention of all, and many of the spectators thought it the fastest game played here this season. The score at the end of the first half was 7 to 2, with the Laurels in the lead. Between halves, however, the Cardinals, assuming more vigor and courage, started into the game intending to better their chance for victory and living up to their expectations, they turned the tables on the opposing quintet defeating the Laurels by a 7 point margin.

IMPERIALS 17—vs—BLUE BELLS 15.

Feb. 10.—In spite of the fact that the Imps defeated the Blue Bells only by two points, proves that both teams fought with the greatest vigor until the end. The entire game was featured by expert guarding and three long shots made from the middle of the floor, of which Fitzpatrick claims two while Tiffin of the Imperials is credited with the other.

Minim League.

OWLS 33—vs—WRENS 5.

Feb. 13.—The Wrens continued on their downward course by accepting another drubbing from the Owls. Ambos and Seyfried divided the honors for the Owls, the former caging five field goals, the latter six. Hunt proved a trifle too "adhesive" for Hennehan, and allowed him to score but one point.

DOVES 33—vs—WRENS 9.

Feb. 11.—The Wrens were unable to continue the pace they set in their last game and allowed the Doves to run the score up to the 33 mark while they contented themselves with only 9. McGahey bid fair to equal Ambos's record in point-getting, but started in too late. Kanney also played a good game.

OWLS 14—vs—LARKS 2.

Feb. 9.—Hennehan's fast five again downed the Larks and mounted a peg nearer the pennant. To Lambert and Dolan, the Owls' clever guards, are due the credit of keeping the Larks' score so near to the zero mark.

OWLS 31—vs—DOVES 13.

Feb. 8. — The Owls continued their winning streak by letting the Doves off with the small end of a 31 to 13 score. Ambros, of the Owls, shattered all Minim records of this season in point gaining by securing ten field goals and one free throw. McGahey was "heavy" man for the Doves, scoring 10 of the 13 points his team made. Both teams did good guarding in the first half, but Ambrose proved too elusive in the second and had no difficulty whatever in scoring.

WRENS 8—vs—LARKS 6.

Feb. 5.—The Wrens proved a huge surprise to the Larks by winning a close game from them them by the score of 8 to 6. Both teams were excellent on defensive work, especially the Wrens who did not allow their opponents a single point in the second period. If the Wrens continue playing in this truly "professional" style they will undoubtedly put in a strong bid for the bunting.

Murphy: "Why does Dermody close his eyes when he sings?"

Lambert: "Perhaps he has a tender heart."

Murphy: "I don't quite understand."

Lambert: "Maybe he can't bear to see how we suffer."

Bro. Fidelis: "Boys are oddities, when we haven't snow the boys want it, and when we have it they throw it away."

Deutch: "Now, Armand. suppose there's a load of hay on one side of the river and a jackass on the other side, and no bridge; now the river is too wide to swim, how can the jackass get to the hay?"

Schellinger: "I give it up."

Deutch: "Wel , that's what the other jackass did "

Schulte: "I had my eye on that seat and Ernst sat on it."

What would happen if Barth, Dermody and Hoetger went to town together?

Pat McCabe: "I saw a man fall into the river."

Gerwert: "Did he drown?"

Pat: "How could a 'cork' man sink?"

Professor: Speaking about the origin of human race, "In Arabia where the cradle of the human race— — Farrell?"

Farrell: "Rocked."

Last summer Matchette went to a policeman and with a very long face said that he had seen a ghost.

"When and where," asked the policeman.

"Last night," replied Bucket, "I was passing by the church and up against the wall I beheld the spectre."

"In what shape did it appear," inquired the policeman.

"It appeared in the shape of a great ass."

"Go home and hold your tongue about it," rejoined the policeman, "you are a very timid man and have been frightened by your own shadow."

O'Connell and Bruckner in reviewing the catechism for exams.

"I got to original sin," said O'Connell, "how far have you got?"

"Me? Oh I'm way beyond redemption," responded Bruckner.

Editor—"Have you submitted this poem anywhere?"

Pettigrew—"No sir."

Editor — "Then where did you get that black eye?"
